

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dr. Joseph Laurino invited to speak at American Chemical Society Presidential Symposium

Fort Lauderdale, FL – August 30, 2016

Periodic Products Inc. announced that Joseph Laurino, PhD, the Company's President and CEO, delivered a presentation at a Presidential Symposium at the 252nd American Chemical Society National Meeting & Exposition in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Laurino's presentation, entitled "Commercialization of Disruptive Chemical Technologies by an Entrepreneurial Venture," was given as part of a chemical business best-practices symposium hosted by the American Chemical Society on August 23, 2016. The symposium highlighted small chemical enterprises with successfully commercialized products developed from new technologies.

About the American Chemical Society

The American Chemical Society is the world's largest scientific society, with nearly 157,000 members. Founded in 1876, the ACS serves as the premier professional organization for chemists, chemical engineers, professionals in related fields, and global chemical enterprises.
